Privacy Policy

Purpose and Use of Information Provided

The information provided will be used to complete required legal documents including, but not limited to, the state death certificate, interment authorizations, obituary if desired, funeral trust, or insurance documents as appropriate. It will also be recorded in a secure file at the funeral home to assist the legal next of kin or responsible party in executing the selected arrangements.

We fully understand the importance of privacy.

Information provided will never be sold to, or shared with, third parties with the exceptions as outlined below.

Certain information may be shared with the State Insurance Commission or other state agencies as legally necessary for the establishment of a Funeral Trust or state approved Insurance Plan to receive payment for the services and merchandise selected.
